Opportunity to buy an office that stands out for its location in the center of Lagos.
This office is located within walking distance of various services, restaurants, parking and public transport.
The office has a prominent window that gives the space natural light and views of the river and Meia Praia. There is a noise-resistant glass brick partition that divides the waiting room from the meeting room. The office has a bathroom and air conditioning.
Housed in a four-story building, with all units connected to services and with the advantage of having an elevator.
